“ I'm gonna miss you Aunt Bee. The last time I was at your house, we had such a good time. Definitely created memories, you told us things about our family lineage that we never knew. Lord I wish I could've spent more time with you! Love you Aunt Bee

“ My heart breaks in letting you go, but my mind is at peace knowing you’re present with the Lord!! Your life truly exemplified walking, witnessing & faith!! I can’t remember what we were celebrating, but one of my fondest memories is of you dancing- doing “ the squirrel “ down to the lime green leggings & white t-shirt you were wearing! That was hilarious- you had me in tears! I love you & I’ll see you when I get home!

I’ll forever remember the love & laughter we shared, especially in our recent conversation! I can’t remember what we were celebrating, but one of my fondest memories is you dancing doin “the squirrel “ Though it’s been years ago, I remember it like yesterday down to what you were wearing- lime green leggings & a white T shirt-I was in tears !! I love you & I’ll see you when I get home!

My dear sweet sister, I already miss talking to you almost every day. And God knows that I didn't expect this day to happen, but only He knows everything and His plans are what matters to us in this life. I know that you're in the arms of our Heavenly Father and His Precious Son, Jesus Christ and I'm satisfied knowing that His will for you has been done. You have done what each of us have to do in this world. I forever keep you in my heart and as long as God bless me with health and strength I will be here for your 2 boys. I love you sis!

I love you, I will miss our conversations and friendship.

2 Timothy 4: 7-8 "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8 Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing"
