“ My dear sister, I will miss you until we see each other again. No words can say how I feel, but I have so many memories, remembering when our parents would go to Memphis for the convocation meetings every year and you were left in charge. You let me stay up to watch The Wizard Of Oz, even now it's my favorite movie of all time, the flying monkeys still give me the creeps. You taught me a lot, but I taught you how to drive! You trusted me to watch your 3 kids while you and Alvin were in the hospital, I loved Memphis and then help Alvin drive the U-haul to Florida. I Love You forever.
