“ Mr. Hodges taught my two daughters kindergarten at Glen Springs. He was a gentle, kind spirit who made learning fun. He was a great role model to his students. When asked who their favorite teacher was, his name was the first they both gave. After attending his beautiful funeral service, I can see he was a great role model to his children and grandchildren. My heart goes out to the Hodges family as they grieve the loss of a great man.

“ Dear Family,
Please accept my heartfelt sympathy on the passing of dear Mr. Hodges. I was very privileged to meet Mr. H. when I started working at Glen Springs Elementary. He was an excellent mentor, offering encouraging words, knowledge, guidance and humor. He volunteered in a class after retiring continuing to share his knowledge with my students. May you cherish the wonderful memories he so graciously left behind.

“ I remember drawing a portrait of Clemmon. In it he is surrounded by his family because family was very important to him. At Glen Springs Elementary, surrounded by his kindergarten class, he guided his small charges in the very same way. Our son Mark, was fortunate to be one of his students. Clemmon was a terrific teacher and a wonderful person. He will be truly missed. Condolences to his family. May wonderful memories bring peace and comfort.

Sincerely,
Sue Johnson

“ Japera, I knew your Dad through you. You were such a blessing to the students here in Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools. The love and concern you showed for their well-being was a testimony to your parents. I am sure that they both instilled wonderful morals and values in you. All of which I had the opportunity to observe. As you go through this time of change, I pray that you will find strength, peace, and comfort. Hold to God's unchanging hand as you adjust. I am a phone call away. God bless you. Sending lots love.

“ So sorry to hear of Mr. Hodges' passing. He was one of the best! Even after he retired, he would still come back and do one of my story times sometimes. He really loved the children!

“ My family and I extend our deepest sympathy to the family. Working with Mr. Hodges was such an honor. He was the first African American male kindergarten teacher that I had the opportunity to work with. What a great teacher he was. He and his wife were our neighbors for a short period until we moved, but they were great neighbors. We will continue to pray for his family. The Mobley Family ❤️🙏
