“ A Poem for Derrick

We come and live on the promise tat one day we will rise to a home in Heaven high above the sky. We hate to see our loved ones go, for they will surely be missed, yet we pray each and every day to experience a day like this, where we will go home to glory and there we will rest, the Lord will say to Derrick, welcome home, for you have done your best.

The Bible tells us to cry when someone is born, and rejoice at the blowing of God's horn. Tomorrow was neve promised, for we live day by day, only to prepare for our Judgement Day.

Derrick lived the life he loved and loved the life he lived, he's gone to meet old family and friends, and look forward to seeing his earthly family again. We must not be sad, we should sing songs of joy and dance in the streets, and pray that Derrick will Rest in Peace.
