

Deloris Anthony Pridgen

May 12, 1949 - September 10, 2024

With heavy hearts and profound sadness, we announce the upcoming funeral services and ceremonies that will honor the life and legacy of Deloris Anthony Pridgen. Born on May 12, 1949, in Gainesville, FL, Deloris peacefully departed this life on September 10, 2024, through natural means at home under hospice care surrounded by her loving family.

In the midst of mourning her loss, we come together to celebrate a remarkable woman whose presence graced the lives of many. Deloris was known not only for her dedicated career as a Supervisor in the healthcare industry but also for her warm, compassionate spirit that touched all who knew her.

Deloris leaves behind her beloved: son, Paul Anthony; daughters, Tracie Anthony, Tahasi Fomby Terry (Paul); surrogate son, Jarvis Michael Vaughn; stepson, Dexter Pridgen IV; brothers, Morris Anthony, Walter Anthony, and Orian Anthony; sister, Marian Anthony McGruder (Paul). She leaves a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews; and, dearest friends, Linda Adams and Bessie Alexander.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, Henry Cleo Anthony and Willie Mae Anthony; sisters, Mae E. Anthony Walker and Ginger G. Anthony Whitford; brothers, Othine Anthony and Henry Anthony; sisters-in-law, Helen Anthony, Daisy

Anthony, and Annette Anthony; dear friend, Diane Filer Mosely, and ex-husband, Dexter Pridgen III.
