“ I’ve known Gary since childhood, and there are so many nice things I can say but, I won’t. Nothing negative to say, because I can’t. I can truly say, he was always the same. Full of smiles, and laughter, and joy. A hard working dedicated man, who absolutely loved his wife, children, grandchildren and his church, and it showed. He will be greatly missed in all aspects of his life. Home, church, work, family, and friends.

To Cynthia, you may have lost your soulmate but, you still have a lifetime of wonderful memories. Gary & Garland, you couldn’t have a better dad. Allow all the fond memories, your family and friends, to see you all through the difficult times ahead.

He will truly be missed. As it was said to me a few days ago, “He was a great guy”.
