“ Hello to the Lewis family and may God comfort all of you through this time of your loss. Henry was a very kind man who was quiet but got the job done. I met him at the Group Home while working with him he spoke highly of his children. Henry was very sincere in raising his children the right way. Upon his relocation to Georgia he contacted me and asked me to write a recommendation for several jobs which I completed. Henry was a hard worker and a very respectable man. My heart was sad when I got the news of his passing and disbelief. To all of his children your Dad was focus on making sure you had what you needed to survive in this world. May his life continue through all of you. Blessing to all of the family and friends. Fly on Henry you will not be forgotten
