“ I miss you so much. Our first Christmas without. Our first Christmas without the both of you. This is so hard. I wish I could go back in time and have you and momma again. Go back to my childhood when you both were alive and well. When we were all smiles and a happy family. I want that so bad. I know God knows best, but I wish He would have waited a little longer before He took you home. Rest on, Daddy. I miss you and love you always

“ It's been almost a year and it still feels surreal. Your oldest granddaughter is getting to graduate from high school. You and momma were supposed to still be here. I know you're still here in spirit but it's not the same. Missing you so much. Love always, your baby girl.
