“ Subject: Correction Needed: Obituary for Jane Brockington

To whom it may concern

I hope this message finds you well. As the family historian, it is important to me to ensure that our records are accurate. I have recently reviewed the obituary for my cousin, Jane Brockington, and I noticed several inaccuracies that I believe need to be addressed.

Here are the correct details:

Jane Brockington has one child, Robyn Nichole Brockington, not three.

Eatheana Williams West is Jane's 1st cousin, not her daughter.

Joel Hobdy is Jane's 1st Cousin Once Removed, not her son.

Jason Saunders is also Jane's 1st Cousin Once Removed, not her son.

Renee Nottage is Robyn's wife, not Jane's daughter.

Shawn Jenkins is Jane's 2nd cousin, not her son.

Essie Williams is not Jane's mother. Her mother is Mable Williams Jenkins.

Jane has only one granddaughter, Terrilyn Brockington (who should be a Nottage due to her parentage, but that is another matter).

Austin and Mason Hobdy are Jane's 1st Cousins Twice Removed, not her grandchildren.

Wrenne Jenkins is Jane's 1st Cousin Twice Removed, not her grandchild.

Margie Williams, listed in the obituary, is the surviving spouse of Jane's uncle (my father, Charles Williams), making her Jane's Aunt-in-law.

Garlenda Grant is Jane's 1st cousin and should be correctly identified as such.

I am not certain who should address these errors, but I felt it was important to bring them to your attention. Correcting these inaccuracies will ensure that Jane's memory is honored properly.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
