“ Dear auntie you truly missed I'm just going through our text message's looking at how we were building a bond and how we were really getting to know each other. It felt great texting you and calling you, just being able to speak to you. Thank you for the encouragement auntie. You will truly be missed.

“ I only met Katherine with a “K” on February 7, 2025 and it was a glorious day and night to remember! She and her friend treated me and Kyle to dinner at Papadeaux and then we had Starbucks and then on to see her beautiful granddaughter perform in a ballet The Beauty and The Beast. We took pictures and she even helped my daughter land a job thru her marvelous son. And she supported my son in his business All in less then 24 hrs . Life well lived!!!

“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Kathy (my cousin/friend). God called her home quickly. Just yesterday we talked and lol. I'll always remember her beautiful smile. It would light up a room.

Family stand strong. Remember Kathy when we smile.

“ Katherine, my sister, my friend. From the first day we met we were stuck with each other. You would have thought we grew up together. I am going to miss your texts, your morning scriptures, encouraging post, our talks on the phone, me coming around your house to talk or yours to mine, the line dance events and just hanging out together. But most of all I'm going to MISS YOU! I love you like you were my blood sister. RIP my Sister. Always in my heart. Andrea
