

Lougenia Edmondson

October 12, 1937 - September 27, 2021

Lougenia Edmondson, 84, passed away Monday, September 27, 2021 at Trailwinds Emergency Room.

A native of Lake Butler, FL, she was a member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in Lady Lake, FL.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Edmondson will be Saturday, October 2, 2021 at 3:00 PM at St. Johns Baptist Church, Providence, FL, with Reverend Abraham Perry, officiating. Burial will follow in Fort Call Cemetery, Lake Butler, FL.

Survivors include; her husband, Robert Edmondson of Fruitland Park, FL; her son Kenneth Brooker (Michelle) of Longwood, FL; two grandchildren, Legrande Brooker and Ian Brooker; eight great-grandchildren; and devoted nieces, Robin Edwards and Kristy Edwards both of Lake Butler, FL.

Arrangements Entrusted to the Care of Chestnut Funeral Home, 18 NW 8th Avenue, Gainesville, FL 32601. "A CHESNUT SERVICE"

Tribute Wall

TG

“ Your family is in our prayers and may God bless the family. We love you and will truly be missed. From Rutha Mae Weeks and family.

Tina George - October 01, 2021 at 12:00 AM

KE

“ Auntie I am really going to miss you i love you

Kristy Edwards-Holland - September 30, 2021 at 12:00 AM

EW

“ Our deepest condolences to the Edmonson family especially Daddy Robert whom we met in Quincy Florida years ago working there, Then we traveled to Leesburg and met this sweet spirited loveable woman "Mrs. Doll" and a doll she was. Sleep on Mrs. Doll till we meet again. Elder Daniel & Lillian Wells

Elder Daniel & Lillian Wells - September 30, 2021 at 12:00 AM

YF

“ So very sorry to hear Mrs. Edmondson has transitioned. Such a beautiful, sweet woman that I called "mom". She was such a meek, mild woman and reminded so much of my mother. Thank God I had the opportunity to meet and worship with you Mom. Rest well. You will be remembered fondly.

Yolanda Fields Chatman, Okahumpka, FL - September 30, 2021 at 12:00 AM