“Praying for Pastor Dix and Lady Michele, Petra, Ben, and Cassie. Mother Dix had a big impact on my life. I went to Passage Family Church for many years when I was in law school and later when I got my first job as an attorney at Three Rivers Legal Services in Lake City. I got to know Mother Dix during Sunday school starting in September 2006. She was very friendly and her faith impacted me. We both loved Precept Bible Studies from Kay Arthur and she shared that she used to go to Creekside for the Tuesday morning studies of Precepts. I would always speak with her on Sundays and Wednesday night Bible studies and got to know her as a friend. During law school, I had an assignment to interview someone who had grown up in Florida before the Civil Rights Act passed. I prayed about it and felt led to reach out to two people I knew. Mother was one of them. Mother Dix shared about her childhood and the injustices she faced when she had to walk to school and it was very cold. I continued to share with Mother about what was happening in juvenile court, the field God called me to and she went with me one December in 2007 to observe juvenile court in Alachua County. We prayed about the injustices we saw. I would continue to share about ups and downs in my life as you do with a friend. Later when I was working in Lake City and had to go to places like Mayo and Dixie County, Mother would tell me to be careful. I remember sharing with her one event in Dixie County where the Clerk of Court would not follow the law and was acting like I did not exist and Mother told, "One day you are just going to laugh at these things." I listened to her and prayed for wisdom and courage as the court personnel would try to circumvent Florida law. God turned that situation around and I shared it with Mother and we both praised God. I later ended up writing a story about the Dixie County incident and it was published in an American Bar Association Journal and I sent Mother Dix the article. She said, "Look at God." We both praised God for what He was doing in our lives. I have not been to Gainesville since 2013 and I moved far away. I wish I had called her recently to see how she was doing and share some of the many miracles God has done in my life. I know she is in heaven receiving the many crowns she won in her race and she is a hero of the faith.
