“ Fly High Moma, My Angel in Heaven to watch over us. I can see now up there enjoying Grandma Red/ Ruby Lee Simmons, Uncle Eddie Lee, Uncle Henry/ Uncle Cornbread and all your Cousins. Moma I am so so proud of the fight you did to stay strong through it all, all the way to the end.

You could mop your carpet still even after your leg amputation, You overcame death and kept breathing and for that Moma I love you even more. You was so strong even after being told you had cancer. So now you are in Heaven being Protected by GOD as one of his Angels watching.

Moma I will forever and ever Love You and keep your Memories alive as you dwell in my heart.

With all my Love from Your Twin & Baby, Lynette Wilson Walker aka Lynn

Rest Easy Moma til we meet again❤️
