“ Mrs. Haile and her family have been a pillar of our community longer than I've been alive. She was always so pleasant and professional in her dealings with others. She made dealing with death and homegoing services memorable for the families and treated everyone with utmost respect. Her devotion to her family, business, and her church family will surely be missed. I pray for God's blessings over the Haile family in this most difficult time. She has transitioned to be with her Lord and Savior and I am so thankful to have known her all these years. God's blessings to her family as they grieve this most difficult loss. Love always Deitra Hines (Williams), Edward Williams Jr, and Mamie Artis.
