“ Sis Rel - It's good-bye today. No more calls, competing with Helen. But we remember the headaches we gave you. Like coming to get us so many times from the theatre at Gaity's in Castries. Wish you were here today to give you more headache 😊. But now you are in a better place. Singing all your Latin songs with the angels 🕊️. I'll keep on singing what you taught me. Thanks for all the pretty dresses you made me. The love and care for me and my children. Have a great time with Mama, Papa, Morrison, Martha and especially Johnny. Bless you...love always ... Freda 💕

“ Our sincere condolences to Ann and family. Aunty Rel will be dearly missed as a Sister, Aunt and God Mother. She took time to be with us during the loss of one of our own. I remember spending time with Aunty and Ann on weekends and the trips to the Augier church on Saturday afternoons to decorate with flowers for Sunday service. She was also close to the volunteers and nuns at St Jude Hospital. Fly with the angels Aunty. From sister Freda, nieces Julie, Angie and Monica, nephew Gilly and Kimmie.

“ Sharon Persad and family We express deepest sympathies to Ann and the rest of the family as we join you in mourning the loss of our dear aunt and sister. Aunty always brightened up the room with her engaging, fun loving personality and infectious laughter. I enjoyed attending church with her and shopping at the malls on my visits with her in Florida. She was an exceptional cook and loved tending to her plants. Fly with the angels Aunty Rel. We will miss you dearly.

“ Rel, we will truly miss you. My Mom and I can no longer call to see how you are doing. I remember, sometimes your blaring TV in the background that would prevent me from hearing you and I would have to draw this to your attention. On our visits to see you, I liked when you showed us what you had planted in your garden. We both have a passion for gardening. Boy, you were proud of your daughter's accomplishments, Jonathan was the apple of your eye, and you enjoyed giving Holy Communion. You are now at peace with your Lord and Savior. Rel, rest in eternal peace. Sending our love, Rina, Constance, Barbara, and Alix (Goddaughter) ”
