

Nathaniel "Nate" McAllister

January 9, 1968 - January 10, 2023

Nathaniel McAllister, III (affectionately known as Nate and called "Lil Jr." by his mother) was born on January 9, 1968 in Hollywood, Florida to the late Nathaniel McAllister, Jr. and Glade Singleton McAllister.

He was the sixth child of eight children. He was raised in a Christian home and attended Atlas AME Church during his childhood years. He later joined Compassionate Outreach Ministries.

He attended Buchholz High School, (where he was a member of the Class of 1985), and later graduated from Gainesville Job Corps.

Nate was a successful business owner and loved to help people. He had a big heart and it showed in his giving. He supported other businesses, and he gave to countless organizations and individuals. He was classy and loved to dress. His children and grandchildren were near and dear to his heart. He loved spending time with family and friends, entertaining and having fun. He loved people and he touched so many in some way.

He leaves to cherish loving memories: four children, Nicole Livingston, High Point, North Carolina; Natasha McAllister, Greenville, South Carolina; Kasey McAllister and Korey McAllister, both of Gainesville, Florida; a loving mother, Glade McAllister, his wife, Kathy McCoy-McAllister, Gainesville, FL; two brothers; Floyd McAllister (Cassandra, deceased) and David McAllister (Patricia), both of Gainesville, FL; four sisters; Diane McAllister, Ft.
