“ To the man who urged me to answer the call and welcomed me to Mount Carmel Baptist Church as the music director back in 2016 with open arms; and to the giant of a man who reminded me to trust in the Lord and lean not to my father an understanding when life didn't go my way; and to the man who refused to sing in the male choir after I begged him because he “couldn't carry a tune”, I say well done Good and faithful servant! As a Deacon, your leadership was felt by all including me. I love you and will forever cherish your memory. You have influenced my life and ministry tremendously. My love to your family, and may you forever rest in God's care!
