“ I am extremely sorry to say that the funeral home is unable to post Sally's legitimate obituary. Also, The Gainesville Sun listed her last name as Fletcher. I have tried my very best to rectify both of these errors. With no success, I have chosen to post here an obituary written by Sally and chosen by her family and dear friends. ~Kim

“ These pictures are from Sally's recent years. There's one of Sally on a routine emergency room visit, and one of her 95th birthday at The Village Gainesville. She didn't want me to take her picture that day, haha. The last one is from Christmas 2024. Sally and I had good times together. And, we had a great group of friends and helpers who all made sure Sally's life was meaningful to the end. Thank you Cynthia, Karen, Pat, and of course Tory. We will miss Sally a lot!

“ Sally Berg's picture in my yearbook for 1973-74. She was a wonderful English teacher at Glenbard North High School in Carol Stream, IL. The school had a student population of 2200.

“ I was just searching through my mother in law's (Betty Inman Tait) email inbox for something else and came across the exchanges between Sally and Betty. Last one was in 2016. Sally and Betty were old friends in Billings. We have heard lots of Sally & Betty stories! The best ones involve their horses. Sending condolences on behalf of Betty.
