“ Hi Nadia, I'm Rene, one of Teresa's sisters. Thank you so much for taking the time to write on her Tribute Wall. I am truly happy that GOD Blessed you and Teresa to be a part of each other's lives. She really was a nice person and fun to grow up with. Not a day goes by that I don't think about her. She was really sick and I am glad that she is no longer suffering. Feel free to contact me any time to share any thoughts, etc. I am on Facebook: Rene Darby, with cupcakes as the background picture (at least for now, lol.). May GOD continue to Bless, Comfort and Keep you.

“ Dear Darby Family, Teresa and I attended middle school and high school together. Her and I laughed so much every day. I'm 44yrs old and I still think of her often and would occasionally look for her online to reconnect. Her smile radiated not only my life but everyone she touches. It saddens me deeply that she has passed. May she be at peace now and I know she is still smiling from up above. May the loved ones stay strong! Love Nadia

“ Teresa and I worked together at Days Inn. She was always making me laugh because things she would say would be so shocking. We worked together for about 4 months. Then one of our co workers died. I just wanna say she is truly missed. R.I.H. TERESA!!!

“ Teresa was always a caregiver and protector of her siblings. Kindness was her persona, always quiet and gave all she met the utmost respect. She was smart and excelled in school and church. Knew her best while I lived in FWB and she was a member at Gregg Chapel. I saw Teresa in FWB a few years ago and she still knew me and called me by name. Sleep in Peace sweet Teresa. Blessings to your family that I'm sure you are watching over with LOVE ❤️.

“ Teresa, I didn't think that I would leave a message on this page because I am so grieved over your passing but I changed my mind. I thank GOD that He Blessed us to be sisters; You, Katie and me. We have so many memories of our childhood and adult life. I find myself remembering more of them since you passed away. I miss your laugh and I miss you being my laughing partner. I miss you calling me by the nicknames you gave me and vice-versa. I miss your hugs and you calling me just to see what we were having for dinner that day. I miss how we used to recite our favorite lines from movies. Most importantly, I miss you! I love you dearly and although I miss you, I'm glad that Our Lord and Savior welcomed you into eternal life! You met GOD, Teresa! How Wonderful is that?! I love you a lot sis. GOD, Jesus and The Holy Spirit have been helping me get through this. I'm in Good Hands. They keep me going. R.I.P. sis. Love, Rene
